The Theater.

There was a foli be use at the Memph's Theater,last night, it being the benefit of f Groceries, Dry Goods, Glassware, Brooms Mr. Edwin Adams. Such an audience as that of last evening, representative BY Mc TOY & BRO. 201 Main Street. as it was of the clife and culture of our city, had done honor to the talent and reputation of any artist. At no time during the season have we witnessed a finer or more appreciative audience as sembled within the Memphis Theater, escription. Special attention and rates and Mr. Adams should, as no doubt be does, recognize the compliment thus paid him. To have pleased this audience and satisfied their critical tasts are evidences of the excellent manner in which the play of Damon and Pythias was presented by Mr. Adams and Mr. C. W. Couldors. The play of Da mon and Pythias is based on an historical fiction, having its origin gracufully assigned to the time of Dionysius, the elder tyrant of Syracuse, who reigned three hundred and sixty years before the birth of Christ. Mr. Adams, last night, as 'Pythias,' and Mr. Couldock as "Damon," gave a charming and artistic representation of the dramatic beauties which invest this play, and in every scene elicited the sympathies and feelings of the audience. This afternoon Marble Beart will be presented, and Enoch Arden to-night, in. which latter will be the people's night, with reduced prices of admission. The Marble Heart matinee should attract a crowded house, for it is one of the best and finest plays Mr. Adams gives. His delineation of the artist, the tableaux, fine sentiment and pathetic feeling pervading the play, give it a popular and superior interest. As Mr. Adams closes his engagement to-night, we hope to see another big house present. Prof. Mueller's Matinee.
